Thank you to all who are working busily behind the scenes. I would like to thank especially all who clean the church daily so that people can be at a lower risk from contracting anything when using the church for personal prayers. Thank you also to Marion Christies for organising the daffodils and greenery for Mothering Sunday and enabling the distribution team to get on with it so efficiently. Thank you to all who helped to deliver them.

Yours Silke

PRAYER OF CONTEMPLATION

Contemplation is a particular way of prayer – a deliberate turning aside from the rush of life and a turning towards God the source of life and being. A way of prayer that is receptive, in one sense passive – though we come to this place by deliberate active choice. We put aside thinking, talking and asking and instead come to God with the simple desire to be present and to be open. We choose for this time to abide in the presence of God.....
