With great sadness I am letting you know that Wendy (Clifford) passed away on the eve of Easter Sunday. Wendy was well cared for in her home, content with the final chapter in her life and much loved by her family and friends. We all grew quite close in this last year and marvelled over Wendy's insistence to manage zoom, which she did extremely well and was a regular participants at Morning and Evening Prayer together with Roy. We will miss Wendy very much. I haven't got any funeral details yet, but will let you know.
