TEST AND TEST AGAIN

Dear Friends,

Many of us are looking forward to the days when the Coronavirus restrictions will be lifted, and one of the ways that we can help that hope become a reality is to keep testing ourselves (and reporting our test results) regularly. Because one third of people who have Coronavirus display no symptoms, the Government is encouraging everyone to test themselves twice weekly. You can do this easily at home and you can order Lateral Flow Test kits for free online here. Testing and getting the vaccines help us all - because no one's truly safe until everyone is safe.

Thank you & Best Wishes, Silke

ARTICLES FOR THE PARISH MAGAZINE

We need more articles for the Parish Magazine!

Our editor Michele has worked very creatively over the last year when there have been very few village events to publicise in the magazine, but she would really appreciate more articles.

Do you have a hobby or interest you could write about? How have you occupied yourself during the pandemic? Memories of exotic holidays in the past? Information about our village or local area? A book or film you would recommend? The art page in the magazine is also always looking for more work to print.....

Many thanks from All Saints Parish Magazine Subcommittee

Changing Lives Conversations

How do we talk to the people around us about our faith, without being driven by guilt or getting tongue-tied by awkwardness? Bishop Rose introduces our video series on 'Changing Lives Conversations' and shares some ways we can practise 'talking God' in our everyday lives.

It turns out it can be surprisingly enjoyable!

Watch this space over the next few weeks for some more video inspiration on Changing Lives Conversations.

DIOCESAN SYNOD ELECTIONS

Results of the elections for the Diocesan Synod of members who were unopposed. These are shown below:-

- House of Clergy = 3: Fiona Haskett, Headcorn and the Suttons; Peter Deaves, Frittenden/Sissinghurst; Nicky Harvey, Marden; + Rodney Dreyer, Hawkhurst, Area Dean;
- House of Laity = 5 - Doreen Braganza, Staplehurst; Kathryn Ogden, Goudhurst/Kilndown; Val Wallis, Staplehurst; Helen Wilkins, Staplehurst + Graham Codling, Marden, Lay Chair

There is 1 House of Laity vacancy and I should be grateful if anyone who is interested in election to the Diocesan Synod by the Deanery Synod would forward their name and address to me with the names and addresses of a proposer and seconder, not later than Friday 20th August, 2021. This will allow time for any necessary election to take place to enable a name to be submitted to the Diocesan Secretary before the end of September.

Every blessing, Brian Woodgate, Deanery Secretary 01622 743011

COVID-19

Statement from Bishop Sarah

“The confirmation of a delay in the next stage of lifting Covid-19 restrictions will be a blow to many people but I understand why this decision has been taken. I am hugely thankful for the success and speed of the vaccination programme which has undoubtedly saved many lives - but we do have to take the spread of the more transmissible Delta variant very seriously and do all we can to protect each other as Christians called to love our neighbour.

I know from those on the front line that the pressures on the NHS are extreme and understand that a delay of a few more weeks in lifting restrictions could make a big difference in helping us all to get ahead in the ‘race’ against this virus which has caused so much death and misery.

Thankfully church buildings remain open for public worship and prayer. While we look forward to restrictions on worship being lifted in the near future, I will continue to press for ongoing appraisal of choral and congregational singing.

We will also update our guidance on public worship where necessary in light of today’s announcement and I understand that the Business Committee of the General Synod will be looking at options for the planned July meeting of Synod in the next few days.

The Prime Minister’s comments about lifting the limit of 30 people attending weddings will be a relief to many. We will await the detail from the Government about what it means in practice and will update our guidance to churches accordingly. Most of all, however, we do have hope. This pandemic has been a trial for us all but we put our trust in God and have hope that there are better times to come.”

Note from Bishop Rose regarding Weddings & Funerals:

“Please note that, although the government has now lifted the limitations on the numbers of people who can attend weddings and funerals, churches must still observe all current Coronavirus guidelines. Therefore, the number of people who can safely (and legally) attend such offices is dependent on how many can be accommodated within the church building while observing social distancing requirements - as with any other act of worship. We will let you know when the national Church of England guidance for parishes is updated.”
