THE SAINT SWITHIN'S DAY CHALLENGE 2021

Legend has it that if it rains on Saint Swithin's Day, it will rain for the next 40. All Saints Parish Church has taken that legend and turned it into an effective fundraising tool that gets the whole community intrigued and involved.

On 15th July, participants sign up to give between 10p and £1 for every day in the next 40 that it rains. They are each emailed a pocket calendar so they can tick off the rainy days and keep a score of the amount they owe.

If it's fine on St Swithin's Day, no problem. The legend says that if the sun shines on 15th July, then it will rain no more. So then simply give an amount of money for every day that's dry. The donations pour in, come rain or shine!

Make sure you have your pocket calendar – email Angie and she'll post it thru your door if unable to print mail@angiewalker.com

CHURCH CLEANING & WORSHIP

OPENING AND MANAGING CHURCH BUILDINGS IN STEP 4 IN THE ROAD MAP OUT OF LOCKDOWN

I would like to thank all who have helped to clean and tidy the church. It was a super effort and we will keep going. Anybody who can give an hour please, we meet Tue-Fri in Church from 11.00-12.00pm.

Just to keep everybody up to date, here is a short summary. Any questions please speak to me.

SOUTH AISLE

We have now utilised the South Aisle by removing any items that were stored on that side and cleaned the pews. We still need to move the paint from underneath one pew and put the paint in the sexton shed.

Now a larger number of people can attend church and socially distance, especially important at weddings, baptisms and funerals.

We have Weddings and Baptisms bookings and by removing all runners we can better clean the pews (bats are very active at the moment and the runners were full with droppings). The runners are stored at the back of church.

SEAT CUSHIONS

If you feel the pews are too hard to sit on without a runner, please let me know and I bring specially made cushions to church (made by Marion Christie-Thank you Marion) or please bring your own if you prefer.

KNEELERS

All kneelers have been put back onto the kneeler benches. That helps to avoid too many bat droppings on them.

SUNDAY SEATING

For Sunday, please sit where you wish but be sensitive to those who still wish to socially distance.

FACE MASKS

Yes we still recommend for everybody to wear face masks.

SINGING

Not at Sunday Services at the moment. The Choir has always had August off and if infection rates continue to come down, hopefully we will be singing soon. We have a special PCC meeting at the end of August to discuss worship.

HOLY COMMUNION

Still in one kind only

ST.GEORGES CHAPEL

I am very grateful to Roy and SallyAnn Barclay who have done a terrific job in arranging St. Georges Chapel so that the Wedding couple can use the chapel for signing their Wedding papers. Many Thanks

The Chapel is not yet open for lighting candles until the PCC meets and discusses worship at their special meeting.

MID- WEEK COMMUNION

Not at the Moment, but again will be discussed at the PCC meeting in August.
