CHURCH CLEANING & WORSHIP UPDATE

Dear All,

The PCC has decided on the following worship pattern for Sunday from September 2021 until January 2022

8.00 am Holy Communion (BCP)

9.30 am Zoom worship

11.00 am Holy Communion (CW)

The decision was based on numerous factors but importantly thinking about risk reduction, nationally rising Covid infections, but low infection rates in Staplehurst at present, Eucharistic provisions for BCP and CW, administering Communion in both kinds and singing during the 11 am service. To get a fuller picture about the decisions made, please speak to me and/or Angie, Churchwarden.

We have not resurrected the Wed Communion Service, because of minimising the risk of infection. Three days after each Sunday Services I take a lateral flow test before I take mid-week Home Communion. If I were to conduct Services in Church midweek there would be no telling if I am infected or not when going on to the housebound in our community. Also we would not be able to use St. Georges Chapel as it is not very well ventilated and the chairs cannot be wiped down. In the winter, in the main body of the church, it would not be very warm. Also we would not be able to have refreshments after the service.

With winter approaching and not knowing what the knock on effect might be with Covid and Flu etc., to keep the Sunday 9.30 am Zoom Service and the 11 am Holy Communion, but also add 8.00am HC BCP – we will hopefully have a sustainable pattern that will see us through the winter.

At the 26th Jan PCC meeting we will see how the trend is going and revisit the situation with worship in mind.

Please read on and find under the headings specifics for each service.

CHURCH CLEANING & WORSHIP UPDATE

OPENING AND MANAGING CHURCH BUILDINGS IN STEP 4 IN THE ROAD MAP OUT OF LOCKDOWN

I would like to thank all who have helped to clean and tidy the church. Thank you particularly to Helen and Petra who have kept going even after the wedding and deep cleaned under the pews. Thank you very much for that. It was and is a super effort and we will keep going.

We have another Wedding coming up on Saturday 25 September and if I could ask for volunteers to help me wash the pews and dust the floor, clean/ disinfect the Toilet and baby changing facilities and children's corner furniture please.

Anybody who can give an hour please, we meet from Tue-Thu from 8-16 Sep. in Church from 11.00-12.00pm.

Just to keep everybody up to date, here is a short summary. Any questions please speak to me and/or Angie churchwarden.

SOUTH AISLE

We keep the South Aisle free from any items so that people can sit there and socially distance, especially at weddings, baptisms and funerals where attendance might be higher.

SEAT CUSHIONS

If you feel the pews are too hard to sit on without a runner, please let me know and I bring specially made cushions to church (made by Marion Christie-Thank you Marion and can be purchased for £8) or please bring your own if you would prefer.

KNEELERS

All kneelers have been put back onto the kneeler benches. That helps to avoid too many bat droppings on them.

SUNDAY SEATING

For Sunday, please sit where you wish, but be sensitive to those who still wish to socially distance.

FACE MASKS

Yes we still recommend for everybody to wear face masks. If you are exempt or don't wear a face mask please be considerate to those who are socially distancing.

CHOIR, ORGANIST AND BAND

They will discuss on Friday at Choir practice. We will keep you posted.

CHURCH CLEANING & WORSHIP UPDATE

SINGING

We will start singing on Sunday 5 September at the 11.00am Service. The choir has been asked to sing the Communion music and we will sing together the last Hymn. This enables those who do not wish to sing or remain in church during the singing of the hymn to have the option to leave the church service at that point and/or sing outside.

HOLY COMMUNION

From Sunday 5 September at the 11.00am Service we offer the option to receive simultaneous Holy Communion that is the host dipped into wine by the minister and given simultaneously to the communicant. We still offer the bread only. Those who receive the bread only comes forward first followed by the others who wish to receive the dipped in wine host.

ST.GEORGES CHAPEL

I am very grateful to Roy and SallyAnn Barclay who have done a terrific job in arranging St. Georges Chapel and continue to keep an eye on it so that Wedding couples can use the chapel for signing their Wedding papers. Many Thanks

The jury is still out on lighting candles, but we will keep you posted.

MID- WEEK COMMUNION

Not at the Moment, but will be discussed again at January's PCC meeting.

BELLRINGERS

I have spoken with the Bell ringers Tower captain and Sue is going to speak with the Bell ringers what time is best to ring. I have explained that the PCC does not mind if the ringing of the bells is at 9.30am or a time that suits the ringers. The Bells are much appreciated but we all have to be flexible at this time of changes and help each other to make it work all around.

REFRESHMENTS AFTER THE SERVICE

Not at the moment.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS FOR HOLY COMMUNION IN CHURCH IS CONDITIONAL AND DEPENDS ON THE COVID INFECTION RATES.

THE PCC WILL REVERT BACK TO A LIMITED SERVICE PROVISION IF THE RISK OF INFECTION MAKES IT NECESSARY
