ST AUGUSTINES AUDIO RETREAT

LOVE IN A BOX

As usual, I will be co-ordinating the collection and delivery of shoeboxes for 'Love in a Box'. This is a way of giving at Christmas to those in Romania who are less fortunate than us. There are still thousands of children and elderly people in care or living in poverty and COVID has exacerbated the situation. The charity is, 'Children in Distress'.

If you would like to fill a shoe box with suitable goodies for a baby (boy or girl), child (girl or boy) or elderly person (male or female) and would like further information, please contact me for a leaflet/form. The boxes should be wrapped in Christmas paper (lid wrapped separately from base so contents can be checked) and a £2 delivery donation is requested. I will need the boxes by end of October please, as I have to take them to Loughton in Essex for collection. Marion Whatmore 893243, 07815297432 or marionwhatmore@gmail.com

The Weald
Disabled

Club For People

If they do not get four volunteers before the end of October, they have made the heart-breaking decision to close.

Since being formed in Headcorn in the 1970's and moving to Staplehurst in 1980 The Weald Club for Disabled People has been a lifeline for disabled and infirm people in the area, giving them an opportunity to meet weekly on Fridays in The McCabe Centre, from 9.00am - 2.00pm. They desperately need volunteers to help at meetings, escorts for journeys in their mini bus, and above all they need a cook to allow their members to have a cooked lunch. If you can help in anyway, please contact: Ken Collins 01580 891337
