CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

DONATIONS FROM SUNDAY 28TH NOVEMBER.

The cost of Flowers has risen greatly over the last year, so some help is needed. The flowers help to create a seasonal atmosphere in Church over the Christmas period. A box will be available at both 8.00 am and 11.00 am services and will be on the chest at the back of the church or donations can be placed in an envelope and put through my door at 4 Vine walk.

With grateful thanks, Marion Christie. 892380. Flower Convener

FOOD NEEDED

URGENT

We are collecting for MAIDSTONE HOMELESS CARE for Christmas. The "washing line" is up in Church with suggestions of items to give...actually any Christmassy non-perishable food (in date), or the usual non-perishable items or toiletries we have been collecting for years. Please leave your donations in my porch, or ring the bell to hand them in. Phone 01580 891940 if you need my address, or I could pick up your gift. We will be taking them to Maidstone on Friday 17th December, so there is not that much time. Please give generously as you do usually.

Thank you, Charity and Social Responsibility Committee

You and your loved ones will be collectively prayed for on Christmas Day. Please phone Audrey on 891940 if you are unable to get to Church and would like me to bring a star to you.

There is a separate Baby Book for your messages if you or someone you know has had a still birth or a baby or young child die. These children will be remembered individually, and they and their parents and family prayed for at a short service on Holy Innocent's Day Tuesday 28th December at 9.30am.
