CHURCH BANNER

Hello Everyone

I am seeking your help on a project.

I am aiming to brighten up our Church and raise funds too. I am making a material banner for use in 'ordinary time', I need some bright coloured material, shiny, if possible, to represent flames in a fire so smaller off cuts will do, (orange and reds).

I also need to dress a shepherd who will be 42inches tall so in need of larger pieces of material, also some felt, in a variety of colours.

The Shepherd will be looking after the sheep.

Each sheep will have names to commemorate a birthday, wedding, moving away, or any other event or just because you want to be on the banner, for instance it could just say 'Doreen & Peter Braganza', or 'The Walsh Family'. For a big family you may need more than one sheep otherwise the font will be smaller.

I am asking for donations for a sheep, which will be hand embroidered with your chosen name(s). Donations can be whatever you want to give for the sheep, once the donation has been received by the church the sheep will be sewn onto the banner.

I am also asking for any spare embroidery threads (silks) in any and all colours please. Materials can be left at my house, or with Silke, or brought to Church, whichever is convenient for you.

Thank you for help, Doreen

Battle of Britain Thanksgiving Service 2024

Sunday the 15 Sept, 10.00am

ALL SAINTS CHURCH

is holding the 84th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain Service of Thanksgiving and Rededication

Saturday 14th September

Sponsorship forms and other details are at the back of the church, or you can contact me on the number below for further information.

The Friends of Kent Churches have made a sizeable grant towards the work on the turret and tower roof, so let's see if we can raise a good amount this year. Both Pat Sherlock and myself are planning to participate so we would be grateful if you could sponsor one of us. All sponsorship money raised will be divided equally between The Friends of Kent Churches and the church or chapel of your choice.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING BREAKFAST

Sunday 6th October 2024
Between 8.50 - 9.50am ~All Saint's Church

Harvest Thanksgiving Breakfast enables us all, 8'a clockers, farmers, flower arrangers, bell ringers and 10'o clockers, to come together to enjoy fellowship and celebrate God's provision for us.

Invitations will be sent out soon.

I am in the organising stage, therefore I ask:

Do you know of any just impediment ☺ why you should not be able to help with the breakfast (arrange tables and chairs etc.?)

Who is a good cook and makes the best fried breakfast?

Who is happy to help with the menu for meat eaters, vegetarians and gluten free needs?

Please let Silke know.

Many Thanks, All Saints Church PCC

No experience necessary, just bring you friends, family and children for a cream tea and an afternoon of whimsy wonder and fun down the rabbit hole. Don't miss this mad hatter's croquet party and refreshments. Come as you are or your favorite Alice in Wonderland character. Entry to croquet £2 donations to the friends for the tea. Put the date in you dairies and don't be late for this afternoon of fun. September 15th 2.00pm at Overbridge Farm, Marden Road, Staplehurst. TN12 0JH. Plenty of parking on site.

Val Wallis Chair, Friends of All Saints

THANK YOU

Thank you so very much for the cards and messages congratulating me of the appointment as Lay Canon Emeritus. It was a tremendous honor in 2009 to be appointed a Honary Lay Canon, one of just 5 across the Diocese of Canterbury, and a delight to engage with the Cathedral in Worship, the College of Canons and Cathedral Council. Until a very recent change in the Cathedral Measures Lay Canons were not given emeriti Status so it is very special to be one of the first group of four Lay Canon emeritus to be appointed by Bishop Rose. Worship at the Cathedral is an enriching experience and I would thoroughly recommend, if you have an opportunity, of slipping in to a Choral Evensong, held every evening at 5 30pm (other than Thursday when it is a said service) and allow yourself to be absorbed by the wonderful music and the beauty of the Cathedral.

The Gift of the Garden

Giles Fraser visits the rooftop Islamic Gardens at the Aga Khan Centre in Kin...

28 mins | 20 Aug 2024

In her poem 'God's Garden', Dorothy Frances Gurney writes:

'One is nearer God's heart in a garden Than anywhere else on earth.'

Join Giles Fraser and a panel of green-fingered guests as they gather together at the Aga Khan Centre in Kings Cross to reflect on the theological significance of gardens and gardening.

From Eden and Gethsemane, to the ancient Islamic gardens of Andalusia, to the Japanese Gardens of Zen Buddhism; temples to churchyards, these sacred zones have been places of solace and reflection for millennia; places of life and death, of peace and tranquillity.

Here, even non-religious gardeners find common ground with their religious counterparts: on their knees, often in silence, hands in the earth.

For many, gardening is the answer. We hear from Jill Smith - lay minister and trustee of 'The Quiet Garden Movement', who tells us how her garden is a place of healing.

Our panellists are Dr Omar Ali de Unzaga - Head of Ismaili Studies at the Aga Khan Centre, Revd Lucy Winkett - Rector at St James' Church in Piccadilly, and Ai Hishii - Director of Japanese garden architects, Momiji Design. *You can visit the Islamic Gardens at the Aga Khan Centre for free - book online. Presenter: Giles Fraser Producers: James Leesley and Bara'atu Ibrahim Editor: Tim Pemberton
